

Rules for originals. 3rd version

By Francesco Ardolino i Esther Vilar

editors of Haidé. Estudis maragallians

GUIDELINES

- Haidé. Estudis maragallians publishes articles written in Catalan, although manuscripts written in any Romance language and/or English might also be accepted when considered necessary by the Editors.

- The submissions must be sent as electronic attachments (.doc or .rtf) to haide@bnc.cat. The text must be preceded by an abstract in both the language in which the article is written, as well as in English (800 characters without spaces). Also, each abstract should be followed by a list of between four and six key words, in the same language.

- All the articles that might be included in the "Dossier" or the "Varia" sections will be reviewed through a first evaluation process ruled by the Editorial Board. Thereafter, the accepted manuscripts will be inspected anonymously, applying a double-blind procedure, by the Directors and the Secretary Board. The reviewers may give approval for the publication of the manuscript, ask for modifications or, if it were necessary, reject it. If the opinions of the evaluators were divergent, the final decision would depend on the Editorial Board.

ARTICLES, INTERVIEWS, NOTES AND OTHER WRITINGS

- Length: The articles submitted for the "Varia" and the "Dossier" sections will have a length between 10,000 and 45,000 characters (without spaces). Exceptionally, other shorter or longer formats will be accepted. Other sections do not have an established length criterion.

- Format: the manuscript should use 10-point Arial font for the main text and 8-point for the footnotes, quotations, etc. The footnote remarks will be placed after the punctuation and outside the parentheses.

- Line spacing: 1,5.

- Quotations: the literal citations within the text that are shorter than three lines will be open and closed with angular comets («...»). In case there is an internal citation into the quotation, the high quotes must be used ("..."). Foreign words will be in italics. However, the magazine can adapt these criteria to the orthographic and typographic rules held by the language of the article.

WORKS CITED, REFERENCES AND WORKS CITED LIST

Since Issue 8, t Haidé. Estudis maragallians uses the adapted model of the New MLA Style as it is presented in the ninth edition of the MLA Handbook (there is a reduced sample here style.mla.org). The essential lines that will be followed are illustrated below with examples.

Examples in-text citation

When the author appears in the sentence:

Així, doncs, Škrabec ha afirmat que «l'obertura interpretativa que autoritza les lectures més personals i intransferibles no és, però, innocent» (426).

If only one work has been referenced in the text:

Així, doncs, caldrà acceptar que «l'obertura interpretativa que autoritza les lectures més personals i intransferibles no és, però, innocent» (Škrabec 426).

If more than one work have been referenced in the text:

Així, doncs, caldrà acceptar que «l'obertura interpretativa que autoritza les lectures més personals i intransferibles no és, però, innocent» (Škrabec «L'escut» 426).

If quoting a text written by two authors:

«L'estudi de fonts, antigues i modernes, per a la Nausica de Maragall, és una tasca que podem considerar completa» (Grau and Homar 11).

If there are three or more authors:

Segons Carbó i al. (5), «el fil irònic recorre i identifica la contemporaneïtat».

When the reference goes to a few pages without a precise order, we will avoid the formula "passim":

Aquesta idea de modernitat ja ha estat explicada per Calinescu (40+) i Bauman (Els reptes 11+).

In the indented text, the reference between parentheses will be placed after the end point of the citation:

S'adapta la lletra de L'Empordà als compassos de Records de ma terra? Sí poc o molt, no ho podria dir; la veritat és que la troballa per a mi és tan recent a l'hora de transcriure-ho, que no tinc altra possibilitat que remarcar-ne ara la coincidència del fet descrit, amb la natural tendència en Maragall, que els versos brollin d'una atractiva deu sonora.
